This pilgrimage involves a moderate amount of physical activity including walking for a mile or more, climbing stairs, and hiking over rocky and uneven ground.

DAY 1, Monday, February 5, 2018 – Depart Philadelphia, PA on American Airlines to Miami, FL and connect to our American Airlines flight to Havana, Cuba. We meet our guide, board our waiting motor coach and enjoy a panoramic tour through Revolution Square, El Vedado and Colon Cemetery before arriving at our hotel. This evening we will be driven to dinner in Classic American Cars at the Rio Mar Restaurant, named after its location and the place where the Rio Almendares River flows into the Atlantic Ocean. Overnight Parque Central Hotel. D

DAY 2, Tues. – After breakfast we enjoy a walking tour through Habana Vieja (Old Havana), founded by the Spanish in 1519, it became a stopping point for the treasure laden Spanish Galleons on the crossing between the New World and the Old World. The city was built in baroque and neoclassic style. We see the Gran Teatro de la Habana (not included in the cost), the former Centro Gallego de La Habana, built in 1906 constructed to serve as a social center for Galician immigrants to Havana and now home to the National Ballet of Cuba; and Capitolio Nacional, Havana's most ambitious and grandiose building, constructed after the post-WWI sugar boom, it is similar to the Capitol building in Washington, DC, but modeled after the Panthéon in Paris. We continue our walk through Paseo del Prado (Paseo de Martí) up to Trocadero Street to the Museum of Revolution, the former Presidential Palace of all Cuban presidents from Mario Garcia Menocal to Fulgencio Bastista. We visit the National Museum of Fine Arts, hosting the largest Cuban art collection in the world including some of the greatest works by Wifredo Lam. We continue on to the Cathedral of Havana, the greatest monument to the style developed in Cuba during the 18th century which became known as Cuban Baroque. We tour the houses of Marques de Aguas Claras (now a state-run restaurant), Conde Bayona's (now a Colonial Art Museum), Marques de Arcos' (now a museum) and Conde Lombillo's (now a museum). After lunch at Doña Eutimía we see the Taller Experimental de la Gráfica and Wifredo Lam Contemporary Art Center. Pending confirmation we meet with The Rt. Rev. Griselda Delgado Del Carpio, Bishop of the Episcopal Church of Cuba. The rest of the day we are free to discover Havana on our own. Overnight Parque Central Hotel. BL

DAY 3, Wed. – Today we travel to Matanzas, a city known as the Cuban Athens because of its deep cultural presence, located just 60 miles to the east of Havana. We visit San Severino Fortress at the entrance of Matanzas, built by the Spanish in 1735 as part of Cuba's defensive ring, a National Heritage site since 1978 and now a museum, in the UNESCO program named the Slave's Route. We visit the Theological Seminary where Episcopal Clergy are trained. This is a colorful place embedded in nature, spirituality and surrounded by one of the most impressive views of the city and Yumurí River Valley. We enjoy lunch at the cozy Mallorca Restaurant before visiting Limonar, a small town 15 miles away from Matanzas. Limonar is huge for Cubans as the hometown of Javier Sotomayor, the greatest high jump athlete of all times. He was two time Olympic Champion and the current and longest standing record in the history of men's high jump, a jump of 8 feet ¼ inch set in 1993. Overnight Hotel Bella Vista, Matanzas. BL

We enjoy lunch at Villa Lagarto Restaurant. Afterwards, we tour the urban center of the city also known as the Southern Pearl including its Prado, Boulevard and José Martí Central Square. We visit Punta Gorda and enjoy the wonderful Palacio de Valle, Casa Verde and Club Cienfuegos. Overnight Rancho Luna Hotel, Cienfuegos. BL

DAY 5, Fri. – Our journey continues to Trinidad, the colonial Jewel of Cuba preserving most of its original charm with a different pace compared to bigger cities on the island, seems to be anchored back in time. We have lunch at the Plaza Mayor Square before our walking tour. We enjoy the views of the Iglesia y Convento de San Francisco, the House of the Sanchez Iznaga and the Palace of the Count Brunet, known as the Romantic Museum with over a dozen rooms originally furnished and decorated. We will have some free time to shop at the San José Art Market while learning about local craftsmanship. This evening we enjoy our “farewell to Cuba” dinner at La Guarida Restaurant, a place not to miss when in Havana, a model of local entrepreneurship and symbol for Cuban art lovers since the building was the scenery for the most famous Cuban film Strawberry and Chocolate by Tomás Gutiérrez Alea.
